DSM MOVIE REVIEW

This Week's Case:

The Soloist (2009)

DSM-IV-TR Code:

295.3 Schizophrenia,
Undifferentiated Type

This Movie's GAF:

84, Well-written and educational: a moving and true story about the effects of schizophrenia.

Prognosis:

Entirely Rentable! If you liked Jamie Foxx in In Living Color, you'll love him in The Soloist.

OCTOBER FACULTY MUSIC MATCH

Conducted & Compiled by Abbey Campbell

Originally I polled CPSY faculty for what theme song they would choose to play in the soundtrack for the movie of their life. Then students had the opportunity to match the professor to their theme song. Thirteen students responded to the online poll.

The winner with the most correct answers was Amanda King!!!! - with a 42% (which is 3 correct).

Correct answers followed by the percentage of correct student guesses:

- "Stand By Me" - Ben E. KingPatty Bartell (15.4% correct)
- "On the Threshold of Liberty" - Mark Isham.....Tom Krieshok (7.7% correct)
- "Farther Along" - Linda Ronstadt, Dolly Parton,
& EmmyLou Harris.....Jim Lichtenberg (7.7% correct)
- "The Times They are A-Changin'" - Bob Dylan.....Karen Multon (0% correct)
- "It's a Good Life" - Jesse McCartney.....Tammy Mikinski (23.1% correct)
- "Don't Stop Believing" - Journey.....Kristen Hensley (30.8% correct)
- "That Summer Feeling" - Jonathan Richman.....Barb Kerr (23.1% correct)

Moral of the story: Students don't know their professors all that well...Maybe professors like it that way, or maybe they should start playing their favorite music during class instead of teaching so much?? Just a thought...

CPSO MOVIE NIGHT: A CHANCE TO KICK BACK AND RELAX

By Ben T. Rutt

CPSO held its first movie night of the 2009-2010 school year on Thursday, September 17th. CPSO provided pizza and many students brought snacks and drinks to share. Tiffany Miller and Mary Krogmann hosted the event and ten CPSO members attended. After having dinner, everyone sat down to watch The Soloist.

When the movie was over, students spoke about their impressions of the film. Many students were interested in how the film depicted various symptoms of schizophrenia including auditory hallucinations, chaotic speech, and grossly disorganized behavior. CPSO plans to schedule additional movie nights in the future. Check the Upcoming Events section in future newsletters for details.

JOIN US FOR CPSO EVENTS

CPSO will be hosting a number of activities soon. Dr. Arachtingi will give a presentation on suicide assessment on 10/22 in CPS, followed by a chance to practice some of the skills we learn. On the morning of Friday 10/23, CPSO members will be meeting to volunteer at Jubilee Café (946 Vermont St.) starting at 6:00 am. Finally, CPSO will host a guest speaker, Dr. Olberding, who will lecture on the topic of the treatment of Addictions on 11/5. See "Upcoming Events" for further details.
