This 1942 film, with Humphrey Bogart, Ingrid Bergman, Claude Rains, Paul Henreid, Peter Lorre, et al, is the one film which constantly vies with Citizen Kane as the very best of Hollywood. It is one of the greatest films of all time, a true masterpiece which can be seen multiple times without losing a bit of its remarkable attraction. This is the latest version which has been given the full technical treatment of the 21st century. Everyone is welcome.

Computer Study

Jerry Niebaum (jniebaum@wizardofkansas.com, 842-3127)

Further suggestions, from any quarter, of plays to be undertaken at forthcoming meetings are always in order.

Metropolitan Opera Radio

Al Sellen (jnalsellen@aol.com, 841-7432)

Starting on January 14, the live Saturday opera radio broadcasts of the Met, received over the Internet, will be presented with high fidelity and without static at the home of Vic and Mary Wallace, 1509 Massachusetts Street. Coffee, snacks, and conversation follow during intermissions, and libretti are furnished when possible. Parking is conveniently available in the church parking lot next door. All are welcome.

When the opera is being presented in live-HD video at movie houses, the group will meet at Southwind Theatres, 3433 Iowa Street, instead of at the Wallaces'.

January 14—12:00. Norma, Bellini. (This is a historic rebroadcast from 1970, with the dream cast of Joan Sutherland, Marilyn Horne, Carlo Bergonzi and Cesare Siepe.)

January 21—11:55, at SouthwindTheatres. The Enchanted Island, (This is a new production at the Met, a Baroque fantasy-pastiche with music by Handel, Vivaldi, and Rameau, to a libretto, in English, "inspired by" Shakespeare.)

January 28—12:00. Tosca, Puccini. (Featured singers: Racette, Antonenko, Morris, and Plishka)

Music

Arno Knapper (knapper@ku.edu, 312-9422)

January 4, 11, 18, 25—Immediately following coffee, in the Music Room.

Opera Study

Al Sellen (jnalsellen@aol.com, 841-7432) and Vic Wallace (wallace@ku.edu, 842-7930)

January 20—1:30 in the Paul Adam Lounge. A Midsummer Night's Dream by Benjamin Britten is next in our series of American and British operas. This adaptation of Shakespeare's fanciful comedy to opera is the closest to Shakespeare of all operatic adaptations. The DVD we will see is a 2005 staging by the Barcelona Opera. An unusual feature of this opera is casting the leading male as a countertenor. The leading role is played by David Daniels, perhaps the most famous countertenor. One could say that the theme is the "madness of love."

Coffee and tea will be served with cookies at the intermission. Length is about 2 1/2 hours. There will be a short discussion of the Opera Study program for next year.

Singing for Fun

Roberta Spires (rspires@ku.edu, 842-6820)

January 5—2:00 in the Music Room. Winnie Gallup will accompany us with the able help of Pat Kelly and Al Gallup. Please come. It is so very much fun.

Ten O'clock Scholars, AKA "Wednesday Coffee"

Esther Smith (842-1660)

January 4, 11, 18, 25—10:00, in the Summerfield Room. Conversation, coffee, tea, cookies and announcements.
