

Pearson Hall Meeting Minutes

August 17, 2008

Garrett Kelly: President

- The next hall meeting is in two weeks, on August 31.
- If you are going to miss a meeting, e-mail him at least 24 hours in advance.
- He is fairly lax about meeting attendance, but remember that it is contractual and that as you are a resident you are required to attend.
- To the newmen: if you visit each member of the executive board, you will receive a sticker. If you receive stickers from all of the executive board, you will be awarded a prize. Nobody knows exactly what the prize will be, but it involves whipped cream and Chris McGillivray's chest.

Shaun Priesgen: Scholarship Hall Director (SHD)

- The pizzas will be late.
(The pizza guy shows up)
- All newmen are welcome until their usefulness has been exhausted.
- On August 20, there will be a Schol Hall Olympic event titled "It's Only Just Begun," which will be in Watkins at 3 in the PM.
- Starting August 18, do not park in the red housing lots. Bad things will happen.
- Buy T-shirts that nobody wears for $10 at the Crawford Center, which is the white building on the other side of 14th Street.

Kye Barker: Vice President

- If you screw up, you get J-Boarded. Kye also judges you as a person. Why? Because he's an asshole.
- J-Boards work like this:
  1. Someone (usually Gibson) fills out a J-Board sheet.
  2. Said sheet is presented to Kye for judgement.
  3. You are summoned before the Twisted Six for questioning and torture.
  4. You are either saved or condemned.
- There are six members of the J-Board, consisting of 2 oldmen, 2 newmen, and 2 of either seniority group.

Spencer Davidson: Secretary

- I am in charge of the hall's mail. If you need stamps or envelopes, I can hook you up.
- I will post the meeting minutes for your reading pleasure where you see them now, in the 2nd and 3rd floor bathrooms.

Scott Peters: Sex Chair

- He can hook you up with condoms and first aid kits whenever you need them.
- If we run out of a certain medical supply that you need, he can hook you up.
- He likes to lick his own taint.

Justin Smith: Community Service Chair

- He coordinates and records community service events for the hall.
- The community service hours log is next to the pop machine in the basement.
- There is an intense, hypermasculine competition among the Schol Halls for the most community service hours.
- If you have questions, just ask him.

Sports Exhibit A: Paul Boner

- Sign up for Flag Football by Friday. He'll need the 16 digit ISB number on your KU ID.
- Sand volleyball, 3-on-3 soccer and tennis are coming up in intramurals.
- There was Ultimate Frisbee after the meeting, whatever good that does anybody now.

Sports Exhibit B: Aaron Dick

- Paul is in charge of intramurals, while he is in charge of game tickets.
- A sports combo package, which gives you season tickets for both basketball and football games, is $150, but only buying football tickets costs you $45. However, you cannot buy basketball tickets without football tickets, because that would just be absurd.
- Buy your tickets in the southeast corner of Allen Fieldhouse. Bring your KU ID.
- The first football game is August 30, and be sure to show up at least 2 hours before kickoff.

Tanner Poop: Alumni Chair

- He deals only with alumni, and refuses to speak to us. Which I don't have a problem with.
- Last year, the alumni BBQ was a relaxed social gathering, but this year, can it be something more? No?...
- He is open to ideas for a Schol Hall wide ASHC event for Homecoming. He's too dumb to come up with them by himself.

Logan Collins: Academic Resource Chair (ARC)

- The listserv is a mass e-mail system that tells you cool stuff that you need to know.
- He also manages the hall website, which is stocked with more cool info, such as the constitution, menus, and nude pictures of a mystery resident.

Chri$ Paradi$: Treasurer

- We don't budget our money. Rather, we just use our social budget.
- Garrett K got us a sweet grant from Coke last year worth $1,400 by selling his body for sexual favors. We also got another $1,400 from housing for posting these pictures on the hall website.
- We have an astounding $3,000 in the social budget, so we'll never work again.
- He wants to know which newspapers and magazines you want to read.

Agoraphobia Chairs: Chris M. & Jeff

- We'll be having "game" nights with Sellards and Miller. There might be one Thursday night at Sellards after dinner, and one at Miller sometime after Labor Day.
- We will escort Sellards to the ice cream social like the manly men we are.
- Sellards is our sister hall. Yay.
- They are planning a dance in late September or October.
- You will learn about these things via e-mails and posters that they make.
- Apparently it's Hawk Week.

Ali Iyican: ASHC Representative

- He represents Pearson at the All Scholarship Hall Council and defends us from impending evil.
- He tells us important announcements that affect us here in Skolhallia.

Garrett K version 1.2

- OTM (Of The Month) awards can be given to any resident of the hall when they are nominated for an outstanding effort to help Pearson.
- Nominate someone for a real reason, not just as a joke.
- He is in room 315, which is just across the hall from a much better room.

Harry makes the hurt in my stomach go away

- He is our restaurant manager.
- There will be monthly Food Board meetings where the cooks will give him a list of ingredients that they need to make meals. He will then promptly give this list to Shaun, who will kind of promptly order the food.
- Lunch and dinner are served Monday through Saturday, with lunch at 11:30 and 12:15, and dinner being at 6.
- 2 people cook each meal, with the exception of Thursdays with Sellards. It is usually a team of one oldman and one newman.
- Snacks are in the pantry for eating or sexual inventiveness.

Harry cont.

- Be careful what you eat. Stuff in bulk is usually for a meal, while small packaged items can be eaten anytime. When in doubt, don't eat it.
- He wants ideas for meals in the next two weeks.
(Harry changes into his Autobot Historian form)
- He takes pictures and is in charge of the Hall of the Year bid.
- OTMs are very important for the Hall of the Year bid, roughly about 30% of the points.
- He wants everyone's picture for the hall roster, and a shirtless picture of Ali for himself.

Paul

- He wants to play frisbee after the meeting because he can't get laid. Next.

Rachel Glover's Personal Whore

- His job as Proctor is to enforce Housing policy, settle roommate conflicts, and be a tool.
- KU is a dry campus, which means drinking is not allowed in the hall. If he sees you drinking anywhere on campus, he has to report you. If he sees you off campus and you're underage, you'll still get written up. Nowhere is safe...
- No smoking in the hall. Victor can only smoke 20 feet away from the door or on the deck.
- As far as having guests over goes, there are no restrictions on who you can bring into the hall and let sleep over. Just make sure that tantric sex at 4 in the morning is okay with your roommate. Chris, it's okay with me.
(Paul text messages on his phone, except that nobody texts him so he just pretends that he's texting someone. What an idiot.)
- The fire escape can be an exit but not an entrance.
- For meals, you don't have to wash your dishes, but if you use a dish outside of a meal, you have to clean it yourself and put it on the dish rack. Clean up after yourself.
- Matt thinks that parketing is a word because he's dumb.
- There won't be parking tickets until the first day of class, but don't park in the red zones EVER.
- Don't hit the sprinkler heads.
- Don't throw stuff down the elevator, but it is okay to throw down in the elevator.
- There is no public restroom that GK can use. Women can use it, and male guests can use our bathrooms.
- For internet, use the left Ethernet cord to hook up to your hub. If you need help, call Resnet at 812-0000.

Interjection 1: Logan

- You're not allowed to have a router, and apparently you can't hide them from housing. Is that a challenge?

Interjection 2: Aaron

- You're responsible for your guests.

More from Rachel's sex toy

- You're responsible for your guests. You're responsible for your guests. You're responsible for your guests.
- Be aware of your guests, and be with them whenever they're in the hall. Think of them like pets.

- You can share food with your guests, but remember that the food is communal and we have to save it for the coming siege.
- Now for some boring shit about shifts:
  - Everyone has one (1) shift, and they are divided into equal amounts of time per week.
  - Fill out the shift request forms and hand them in after Friday.
  - If you miss your shift, you get J-Boarded. However, he will give you warnings before it comes to that.
  - If you have any questions, ask him or an oldman. But not Clint. Never Clint.
  - For the next couple of weeks, we will have temp credits. Everyone has 14 credits, and the goal is to work down to zero. Try not to go negative. It screws people out of credits.
- Sign the signoff sheets if you have a cleaning shift.
- All shifts must be done by 11 PM if not specified before then.
- Do not give the door code to anyone who does not live in Pearson.

SCHEDULE OF RAGING INTENSITY

Wednesday, August 20 - "It's Only Just Begun" at Watkins, 3 PM

Thursday, August 21 – classes start

Friday, August 22 – last day to sign up for intramural flag football

Saturday, August 23 - start handing in shift request forms at 12 AM

Monday, August 25 – Nerdles realizes the full extent of his complete and utter worthlessness while laying in his filthy bed drenched in his own tears and bleeding from where Chris has punched him in the teeth for crying like the worthless waste of humanity that he is.

Sunday, August 31 – Hall Meeting, 5:45 PM

Monday, September 1 – Labor Day (no classes)

THINGS TO PONDER (NEW & IMPROVED)

When will Kye stop stroking that fucking beard like the pompous asshole that he is?

Lots of people have lofted beds this year. However, mine are the only ones that are painted black. In how many ways does this verify my genius?

Which newman will Scott Peters eat first? (This is your warning. Get out now.)
