

Pearson Hall Meeting Minutes

September 14, 2008

This hall is full of perverts. GK calls his penis “Seymore the Sea Monster,” John Bergman calls his “The Octogon,” and Spencer Seman seems to live in constant fear of his. Brownie has named his penis after his roommate as a questionable sign of affection, and Scott Peters claims to be my father. But a hearty congratulations to Jun for finally finding his.

Justin, who really has no unique reason to go first

- If you have done any community service for the month of August, submit it by the end of today. Thankfully, due to my 24 hour guarantee, you will be notified before this deadline.
- There will be a fundraiser in the form of a game called “Secret Agents,” also known as “Assassins” by the rest of the world. You pay $5 to play, and the money goes to Big Brothers and Sisters. If you want to play, talk to him.

Shaun, nobody gives a flying fuck about the Packers

- The fire safety meeting is next Monday in Stephenson at 7 or 7:30. It’s okay that he doesn’t know the time, since the dates are on the board outside his office.
- The Krehbiel Dedication is next Saturday. There will be food, but that probably won’t be enough to get anybody to give a shit.
- If you are parked in the alleyway behind Maggie and KK, you’ll have to move your car so that people can go to the Krehbiel dedication that nobody cares about.

Ali, why has Christian taken him from us?!

- ASHC needs a new programming chair to help them wage their war. The person who holds this position is in charge of organizing educational events, getting Schol Hall T-shirts, and representing the Schol Halls at Homecoming. If you want this position, you’ll have to write a letter of intent and give Ali a blow job.
- If you want to get some sexy action in on Homecoming, come to a meeting on September 21 at 6 PM in Alderson Auditorium.
- If you have any stories or poems or nude photos, feel free to submit them to the Skol Holler.
- If you’re feeling as useless as Nerdles, ASHC is a good way to get involved in Schol Hall stuff.

Ryan (I think that was his name)

- He passed around voter registration forms that you fill out so that you can vote for Obama.
- Try to get these forms back to Shaun by the middle to the end of the week.
- The voter registration deadline for the state of Kansas is October 20.
- Steele needs to go to the County Clerk’s office because he was a dumbass and lost his card.
- If you need advice, just ask around the hall. There are several people who have unyielding political opinions that can easily help you out.

Social Chair and Chris

- Chris says: Stuff has changed.
- Jeff says: There will be a poker tournament at Maggie involving fantastic prizes.
The majors dinner is on September 24.
The Sellards Tropical Party is on September 27. We should all dress up as Baywatch characters.
There will be a BBQ with Miller and Watkins for all the Schol Halls on September 30.
On either October 10 or 11, there will be a British-themed party. Come to them with ideas for British music artists to play during the party. I recommend an out-loud reading of the 18th century British novel Tom Jones.
Breakfast Shmeakfast will be on November 7, and will feature 3 Man Beat Machine.

We will be making another “Men of Pearson” calendar. Start tanning for your picture.

The Sports Chair in charge of actually playing sports

- He's working on the shirts that aren't free, but actually look good enough to wear in public.
- If you're playing flag football, pick up a Champion shirt if you haven't done so already.
- He's trying to reschedule the flag football games that were cancelled today so that we can defend our 1-0 record.
- The only person signed up for table tennis is C McG.

The other Sports Chair in charge of watching people better than you play sports

- If you want to sign up for camping, talk to him. Pearson camps primarily with Miller, and also with Sellards and Maggie.
- Aaron lied and said that he has friends.
- Camping is a 4 hour time commitment per week where you can do homework, sleep, and bate.

Haaaarrrry

- Jason and Kurtis are the only dipshits that haven't gone to a food safety meeting. They should go to the one tomorrow night at 7:30 PM in Alderson Auditorium in the Kansas Union.
- Keep the yellow receipts from stuff that we get in food shipments. If we collect enough, we can mail them in for a Transformers keychain.
- Cooks need to use the food and sex toys that they request.
- K-Team needs to pick up the slack and check the fridge and produce for rotten shit.

The world waited, and not a single living man drew breath as all the inhabitants of the earth stood still in the wake of conflict. Finally, as the bells tolled out over the land and the masses raised their hands in celebration, behold! the decision was made. A new age of the earth was begun, one in which Papa John's triumphed, and the evils of Wheat State were cast out of the world.

GK, I miss Brendan

- If you are going to miss or be late to a meeting, you need to tell him IN WRITING (either e-mail or handwritten) at least 24 hours before the meeting.
- There are no cell phones allowed at the meetings.
- That semen receptacle Jon Samp thought it was cool to have his laptop out. Steele, you're still cool.

He never stops talking, just keeps going on and on even though NOBODY GIVES A SHIT

- Sign the signoff sheet for cleaning shifts so that I don't have to type the same thing after each meeting.
- Do your shifts before 11 PM so that I don't have to keep typing about it.
- Dishes: dry the dishes and cups, put them upside down in the cupboards, don't jack off in them.
- H&H: change the shower curtains on Sundays so that we can wash Chris McGillivray's semen out of them, and be sure to clean the floors and toilets well.
- Cooks: clean the grating on the grill and don't leave ash and coals on the bottom. When you dump out the grease, get it in the can, not just in the general vicinity of the corner.
- Morning Kitchen: Remove the grease can by dumping it out in Adam's back yard.
- P&P: Clean the sinks and put the tupperware upside down.
- Waiters: Put the newspapers in the new recycling bins. Don't jack off in them.
- Don't leave food and excrement in the sinks for other people to clean up. It's weaker than Clint's sauce.
- Regarding Sunday shifts: Put your dishes in the dishroom, not on the counter.
We have new towels, so wash and wring them out before you put them in the hamper.
- When you put your dishes on the counter after a meal, scrape off the food first.
- If you cook a meal for yourself, clean up afterwards.
- Put knives in the knife blocks so Chris Paradies doesn't get pissy about it.

- Victor needs to stop leaving his shit in the study room.
- Scott needs to stop ruining silverware with his mind, and we also need to stop putting it down the disposal.
- We'll be doing No-Shave November again this year as a fundraiser for Breast Cancer research. We'll then do No-Haircut spring semester.

Tosin doesn't want cooks to use more pots than necessary so that he doesn't have to whine about it at meetings.

THINGS TO PONDER (IN LATIN IF I FELT LIKE IT)

What happened to the Jun jammies?

What is Kye's one weakness, and how do we exploit it?

Does Matt Vink actually like video games, or does he just get pleasure from hating them so much?

How can I get my mac on?

DISCUSS.
