

Pearson Hall Meeting Minutes

December 7, 2008

This hall needs to get a little more Christmas spirit and a little less horny. For Christmas, four people want Clint or various members of his family, and two people want Tosin for some reason. GK and CP want to hook up in a bathtub over the holidays, and Spencer S. wants to be Tanner's date for the military ball. But worse than all these rampant sexual fantasies is Kurtis wanting less Christmas. I don't know why he hates Christmas, but he can't stop it. This holiday is a year-long event in Pearson. But I digress on these matters. To the minutes!

Shaun actually talked about somewhat important matters this time, kind of freaked me out

- Sign his sheet to tell him when your last final is. This way he can kind of do his job and help you check out. 24 hours after your last final, you need to get out. If you need to stay past 5 PM on Friday, talk to him.
- If you want to apply for proctor or food board manager next year, start to think about turning in your applications for it. The position will be decided by a group of selected peers and Housing Staff, Justin included. The positions will be decided by the beginning of Spring Break.
- Fill out your staff evaluations online and let it be known how much he sucks. Finish them by tomorrow.
- He'll be putting sheets on our doors that list all the things we have to do to check out of the hall properly. Clean up your room and do everything properly, then sign the sheet and go home.
- Sign up for a checkout time outside his office. You have a choice to check out with him or Gibson. Wonderful.
- Once you leave the hall for break, you won't be able to get back in (legally). Be sure to take home everything you'll need to survive the long winter.
- Starting Stop Day, there will be 24-hour quiet hours. Don't worry though, the Crawford Center is a FUN ZONE. ... I have nothing to add to that.
- This Wednesday from 8 PM to 11 PM, the SHDs will be serving us coffee-house style over at Crawford, because we all know that anywhere Shaun is constitutes as a fun zone.

The best impression of Harry Swartz I've seen in a long time

- He will post a sheet listing possible meals for finals week. If you sign up to cook for temp shifts, select a meal from that list and then cross it off when you're done. If you want to concoct some other amalgamation of bacon and bosco sticks, talk to him about it first.
- If you're doing dishes, be sure to empty the dishwasher and then refill it with clean water for the next shift. Also be sure to clean the food trap of dirty food that past generations have left for us.
- Wash your hands regularly and use hand sanitizer so that we don't all get sick and bitchy, especially Chris Paradies.
- Don't be a lazy raging fatass like Chubs. Get up and help with the food shipments.

Proctor makes his entrance, and we're off to the races

- We raised $420 for No-Shave November this year, with Sellards donating $274 by themselves.
  - 1st Place: Jeff with $43
  - 2nd Place: Gibson with $38
  - 3rd Place: The Voice of the People with $34
- A big thanks to everyone who participated and donated, especially Sellards.
- We got an A- on the last walkthrough. We failed at life.
- Keep doing your shift as amazingly as you are right now. Yet we still fail in some areas:
  - Dishes: Clean the counters and the sink, and also empty and refill the dishwasher (which is exactly what Harry said earlier, but Gibson repeated it anyway).
  - Showers: We need to use Simple Green now, and Victor actually needs to do the shift once in a while.
  - H&H: Clean the bases of the toilets when you mop. Also, people shouldn't be leaving dishes in the bathroom lest you incur the rage of Tanner. So to reiterate: NO DISHES, TANNER SMASH.

- Everyone (meaning the second floor) needs to clean out and organize the hallway closets by the end of the semester. Otherwise, Gibson will clean out the closets after we all leave, and then he'll either throw our stuff out or sell it all for higher prices than it was worth. Is that what you want to happen to your stuff? Don't give Gibson the pleasure of increasing his pile of wealth at your expense.

Shut up, we get it

- There will be no shifts on Stop Day, which means that we'll have to clean up after ourselves. It also means that we should prepare to fend for ourselves. Introduce a little anarchy, upset the established order, and everything becomes chaos. I've heard that from somewhere...
- He will post the sheet for Temp shifts in the stairwell soon. As usual, the Secretary gets first pick.
- We'll all have a closing shift to do before we leave, or else we'll get an improper checkout fee. Sign up for a shift that will somewhat coincide with the day you want to leave.
- Good luck on finals (he wants us to fail).
- If you need to stay until Saturday (or if you feel like just hanging out here), talk to Shaun.

Poor Little Jeffrey

- Thanks to everyone who helped out with the recent moderately successful Breakfast Schmeakfast event.
- The hour of glory draws nigh:

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

Breakfast Schmeakfast

Pearson Kitchen

This Saturday, December 13

Start getting ready at about 10 AM or so.

Justin the Gatherer of Masses

- No-Shave November brought us 247 community service hours. Now we don't have to do anything else. Nice work boys.

Property of Madi Shipley

- The shirts are finally here, and they're sweet. However, you can only get them from him when he's here, and they cost $10 and your virginity.
- Pearson will (supposedly) be playing dodgeball on December 9 at 8 PM.

I refuse to acknowledge this man by name

- On Monday or Tuesday, a professor might visit us and stimulate our intellectual brains.
- The condoms are looking good like always. We have about 12 or 14 left, and if we keep our sexual reproduction at this pace we should be alright.

Tanner the Planner with Manners

- He'll start learning how to read and write so that he can work on the alumni newsletter over break.
- If you have any ideas for how to not make the newsletter or the cookout suck, let him know.

Ali, Resident Sex Fiend

- There is information posted in the stairwell about Relay 4 Life. It will take place at 6 PM on May 1 to 6 AM on May 2. The goal is to raise awareness for cancer and get some exercise for Chubs. There will be food, entertainment and contests, as well as general fun all around.
- If you want to be a captain, email him. If you want him to be your captain, just go knock on his door.

Aaron, Resident

- Pick up your tickets for basketball games. You can also pick up tickets online, but it costs $1 per game.
- KU will play Minnesota in the Insight Bowl. Yay.
