

Pearson Hall Meeting Minutes

January 18, 2009

I won't talk much about the sign-in sheet. I'll only warn all of you to stay far, far away from Clint Shriner. Moving on...

ELECTIONS

ASHC Representative: Jason Miller (acclimated)

Hall Bitch: Kye Barker (acclimated)

J-Board Minions of Spencer Seman arise:

Joseph Swisher	Tanner Popp	Kye Barker
Jason Miller	Chris Paradies	John Bergman

Proctor & Food Board Manager Selections Committee:

Diego Taborga	Jason Miller	Steele Reynolds
---------------	--------------	-----------------

Proctor Gibby McSuckNut

- Do not touch the circuit breakers. That's his way of daring you to do it.
- Do not write in the maintenance log. Instead, write on the little sheet of paper next to it that apparently wasn't there when C.McG. did it.
- Don't leave junk lying in the hallways and around the hall.
- Permanent and Sunday shifts are posted on the ice machine in the kitchen. Team Shower rides again.
- If you mess up or don't do a shift, you'll get one warning. The next time, it's a J-Board.
- Shifts start on Monday, which is the same day these minutes were posted. 24-hour guarantee, bitches.
- If you want to come back next year, you'll need to fill out your housing contract and turn it in. We will all be getting these in the mail sometime soon, and we can start turning them in Tuesday, January 22. They are due by February 6 at 5 PM. As long as you turn in your contract before the due date, you will get your current spot in Pearson back for next year.
- Between January 26 and February 6, you can take your contract up to Corbin Hall and turn it in anytime between the hours of 8 AM and 5 PM. If you turn it in between 11 AM and 2 PM, you'll get immediate placement (for some wacky reason). You can also turn your contract in at Crawford on Thursday, February 5 between 11 AM and 2 PM.
- Tosin has to sit down to pee.
- It will cost $300 to renew your contract, which you can pay when you turn it in or have it billed. You will need to pay by March 13. However, if you choose to cancel your contract before next year, you might get some money back from housing out of the kindness of their hearts.
 - Cancel by March 15 = get $200 back, and your virginity
 - Cancel by July 1 = get $100 back, and NOT your virginity
 - Cancel after July 1 = get NOTHING back
- If you are unsure if you want to live here next year, it is recommended that you sign up anyway just to have it as a backup. If you choose to move out, you can always just cancel your contract.

Harry the Swarthy

- Food Board meetings will be at 9 PM on Tuesday nights.
- Recipes for the next two weeks are due by 10 PM on Wednesday.
- Be nice to the new bowls. Don't put them in the microwave or Tanner's room.

- He wants to take special pictures of some of us to complete his collection.

Team Social

- Harry will be taking pictures of people for the calendars this week. Dress appropriately. Define “appropriately” however you please.
- We might throw a Super-festive party for the Super Bowl (get it, it’s clever you see) with Miller. We’ll watch the game up there because they have nicer things than we do.
- They proposed the radical idea of having monthly dinners and game nights with Maggie.
- The Rock-A-Thon is scheduled for April 18th. A committee will be formed to discuss and prepare for the coming awesomeness.
- We will be hosting another Breakfast Schmeakfast with the ladies of Douthart and Watkins who will not show up. Don’t worry, there should be lots of leftover food, so we’ll crack a profit by the time it’s over.
- They want to celebrate the birthday of our beloved founder Joseph R. Pearson. There may be cake, birthday cards and gifts that other halls are obligated to bring us.

Other Spencer

- Upon consulting us for our input, he has decided to seek zipless hoodies for the chosen article of clothing.
- He seeks to assemble his dark servants of the J-Board, whereupon he will break them and corrupt their minds in the absence of their once-proud sense of hope.

Ryan Sex King

- In an unprecedented move, this new Sex Chair has restocked the condoms and first aid kits. Few can recall when this radical act was last done.
- Chancellor Bob will be dining with us sometime on a date to be decided upon later. A group of our finest cooks named Spencer Seman will present Chancellor Bob with an offering of peace composed from our finest foods.
- If you have any ideas for professors who could visit us, let him know.

Team Sports

- You can start picking up basketball tickets Monday. Woo.
- Intramural basketball will begin soon. We will play on Sundays.
 - 1 PM – Just Chillin’ (for people who suck)
 - 3 PM – Co-Rec with Miller (for awkward sexual tension)
 - 4 PM – Competitive (for people who refuse to accept that they suck)
- We will also be playing Wallyball, which, as Tanner Resident Wallyball Expert explained, is volleyball played in a racquetball court. Genius.
- Get your shirts, bitches. $10.
- He wants to buy a new football, which will cost roughly $20. Hopefully this next one can withstand my powerful grip.

Chris P. (a.k.a. Crispy)

- He wants to get new sleds because his fat ass broke the old ones. They should cost about $20.

Justin the Avenger

- If you have any recurring community service or nightmares, tell him and he will record them in his books for future generations to read.

GK talk

- The month of February will feature Rock Chalk, Turn It Off, a month-long event where we try to reduce our energy consumption. Whichever hall shows the most improvement from last February’s energy usage will win a trophy.

Shaun

- Welcome back. He doesn't mean it.
- He thanked all of us for leaving last semester in a timely fashion. Which we were more than happy to do.

GK talk more

- If we want to win hall of the year, we need to fill out more OTMs. Or destroy the other halls. Whatever it comes down to.
